14 th August Partition Horror Remembrance Day

Report

On 14 th August, 2022 Kabi Sukanta Mahavidyalaya, Bhadreswar, Hooghly celebrated the 'Partition Horror Remembrance Day', as per the instructions of the UGC, to commemorate the horrors and violence that occurred during the days of Partition in India. In the said program the socio-political background of the Partition was explained by the speakers and some of the gruesome and grisly images of partition were shown to the members and student who joined in this program. Both teachers and students performed songs and recitations keeping in focus the unforgettable memories and the theme of displacement which took place as true events during and after the partition. The performances were really engaging, memorable and effective which recalled the story of Partition once more.
