REPORT

11.03 . 2019

Like every year our departmental wall magazine is published on 27th february 2019. It is a joint effort of the students and teachers of the department. The theme of the magazine is Unity IN diversity . INDIA , the country has a different type of religions, languages, cultures, ethnicity but all thIndian e people have been identified by their own nationality . .

The response from students was inspiring. Students with legible handwriting were selected to make the final copy. The students submitted their writings and drawings . Finally, the magazine was put up on the wall on 27th february , 2019 by the department. The principal of the institution lauded the effort and hoped that the magazine would be published every year, as it offers the students a platform to show their creativity and talent.
