REPORT

30/09/2022

Like every year our departmental wall magazine is published on 27/09/2022 . It is a joint effort of the students and teachers of the department. The theme of the magazine is SOCIAL, ECONOMIC, POLITICAL PERSPECTIVE ON COVID 19 viz. Writing, the country has a different type of religions, languages, cultures, ethnicity but all the Indian people have been identified by their own nationality . .

The response from students was inspiring. Students with legible handwriting were selected to make the final copy. The students submitted their writings and drawings . Finally, the magazine was put up on the wall on 30/09/2022 by the department. The principal of the institution lauded the effort and hoped that the magazine would be published every year, as it offers the students a platform to show their creativity and talent.
