The 9th International Yoga Day of 2023 was jointly observed by Kabi Sukanta Mahavidyalaya, NSS UNIT I & II centering round the theme 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', on 21st June at the college premises. The session was chaired by our respected Principal Dr. Md. Salauddin Khan accompanied by our special invitee Shri Tamalesh Bacchar, the trained Yoga specialist who graced our occasion with his various Yoga skills that simultaneously motivated and influenced the students with their effective participation. The program was initiated by an inaugural song by our students followed by introducing our two new program officers and the event organizers viz, Sri Sohan Das (UNIT I), Assitant Professor of Sociology and Smt. Priya Das (UNIT II), Assistant Professor of English. The entire team of NSS took the Yoga Day Pledge ushered by Smt. Priya Das. The event became more vivacious with the motivating speeches of our respected Principal Dr. Md. Salauddin Khan, Dr. Rupam Mukherjee, Assistant Professor of Economis, Dr. Golam Mostafa, Assistant Professor of Geography and the Secretary of Teachers' Counsil, as well as our students who elucidated the various aspects of Yoga. Two of our students recited poetries to enlighten the occasion. The NSS motto and the NSS clap were steered by Sri Soumitra Sarkar, Lecturer in Sociology and the former program officer of NSS (Unit II). The program gradually ended with the Vote of Thanks by Sri. Sohan Das.
